SERVUS AND WELCOME TO THE PAULANER BRÄUHAUS AM WALDSCHLÖSSCHEN!

As early as the 18th century the building was referred to as a "jewel of construction and art history". This inspired us! Together with our team and the Paulaner brewery we spent the past 16 months passionately preparing so that this "jewel" could shine in new splendor.

We are almost ready now and look forward to presenting the new "Waldschlösschen" to you. Some of the components we kept, others were newly added. Allow yourself to be surprised!

Today as it was then our credo remains: Highest quality and outstanding taste! Therefore our recipes and the quality of our extraordinary, home-brewed beers have remained unchanged. Enjoy Bavarian delicacies and local specialties with our beers and take some time to unwind.

Regardless if in the "Wirtshaus", on our terrace, or in the large beer garden with an amazing view over the river Elbe - our Paulaner Bräuhaus am Waldschlösschen is truly "the place to beer".

Prost - we look forward to welcoming you!

OUR SAUSAGES

BAVARIAN How to eat a "Weißwurst"

OPTION 1 CUT TO PIECES

Cut lengthwise into the "Weißwurst", open the two halves of the sausage with knife and fork and then scrape out the sausage with your fork. Savour each bite with sweet mustard, a pretzel and a freshly tapped, cool Paulaner beer.

OPTION 2 "ZUZELN"

"Sucking" - The traditional Bavarian way to eat a "Weißwurst". How does it work?

That's how you do it!

STEP 1: "hand to mouth" Pick up the sausage with your fingers. Dip it into the sweet mustard and raise the sausage to your mouth.

STEP 2: "sucking" Bite a hole into the skin of the sausage. Suck ("zuzeln") the filling out of the skin. Preferably remove the filling with your teeth from the skin. The traditional Bavarian way to enjoy the sausage is also with a "Brez'n" and a fresh Paulaner beer.

"An Guad'n!"

Munich Lifestyle

The "Maß" of beer gleams golden yellow in the sun.
A heavenly scent of "Steckerlfisch" and roasted pork knuckles clear its way through the air. At the next table, in the shade of the chestnut trees, a man unpacks his "Brotzeit", a typical Bavarian snack consisting of bread and "Brezn", accompanied by something appropriate like cheese or sausage. This is real Bavarian beer garden idyll and perfect summer happiness in one of Munich's "Wirtshäuser".
